THE CYCLONE'S CLUTCH.

It Grasps Many Illinois Towns By the Throat

AND GIVES THEM A SHAKING UP.

Midnight Darkness Precedes the Awful Sweep of the Wind

AND THE ROAR OF THE STORM.

Towns in Knox County Sustain the Worst Damage to Property and in Many Cases Death--Church Steeples Snapped Off as if Cut with a Knife. A Worshipping Congregation Surprised by the Demolition of the Edifice.

GALESBURG, ILL., June 14.—There passed through the northeastern part of this, Knox county, about 8 o'clock yesterday evening a most destructive tornado, and ruin was left all along its path. It seems to have made its first appearance northwest of Galva. About 7:30 o'clock two black threatening clouds were noticed in the west approaching one another, and the tornado is thought to have resulted from their junction. It came with such suddenness that the citizens had no time in which to fly to places of safety. In the Free Methodist church there was assembled a congregation. The church was quickly a mass of ruins. A number were injured, one dangerously. The roar of the storm is described as terrible. It was accompanied by midnight darkness and an awful sweep of wind that carried everything before it. Nearly every business house along the principal street was unroofed and the stocks of goods were badly damaged by the flood of water following the tornado. The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy roundhouse was totally wrecked. The G. W. Barnett elevator near by was unroofed and 10,000 bushels of grain deluged with water. The Rock Island & Peoria elevator and a part of the depot went next. The tall steeple of the Baptist church was cut off as clean as if by a knife and hurled into the street. The Congregational church was also badly damaged.

THE SADDEST FEATURE.
The saddest feature occurred at August Olson's house. There were in the house at the time Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Charles Olson and four others. The residence suddenly collapsed, killing Mr. Olson instantly and the others escaped by a miracle. The place to-day was in a state of demoralization. Business was completely suspended and the streets were filled with debris of every description. The stores were more or less in ruins. There is hardly a residence but what will need repairs. The damage is estimated at two hundred thousand dollars. Considering the number of buildings wrecked it is surprising that there was not greater loss of life. Mr. Olson was the only one killed.

The injured were as follows: George Erickson, hip injured and arm broken; Mrs. Albert Erickson, hurt internally; Mrs. John Erickson, hurt in back and head; Mrs. Herman Anderson, hurt internally; Mr. and Mrs. Noah Yarger, slightly injured; O. M. Hempstead, hurt about head; Ernest Dickerson, leg broken; Albert Erickson, hurt internally; Hulda Carlson, leg broken; Nellie Mellie, hurt internally.

The velocity of the wind was extraordinary; cars were blown from the tracks. The top of a freight car was blown off the switch.

PROPERTY AND DWELLINGS DEMOLISHED.
The southeastern part of Galva suffered most severely. After leaving Galva, the tornado went in a southeasterly direction, according to some, following Walnut creek. From all accounts it must have been three or four miles in width. The farms all along its path to Spoon river, suffered most severely. It passed three and one-half miles from Alton. The large brick house of Mrs. Jones crumbled to pieces. Washington Dunbar's large barn was blown over and a number of head of cattle were killed. Fences were blown away, orchards prostrated and ruined and crops leveled. Lord Peterson's house was blown away. The storm in the vicinity of Lafayette is said to have been severe, but the damage was less than farther north.

A CHURCH WRECKED.

It was in the Free Methodist church in Galva that most of those injured were hurt. This old building is in the southeast part of the town. A large congregation was assembled, but on seeing and hearing the storm started to run out. Nearly all escaped. Nellie Mellie, Mrs. John Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Erickson, George Erickson, Hulda Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson and Mrs. Herman Anderson were not quick enough and were either buried in the debris or stricken by flying timbers. Albert Erickson, although injured, returned to the church and rescued his brother George, who was buried under a mass of rubbish and was buried under a mass of rubbish and was buried under a mass of rubbish.

CHICAGO TORNADO.

Eight Persons Killed and Fifteen are Seriously Injured.

CHICAGO, June 14.—The tornado here yesterday afternoon was much more destructive than the first reports indicated. At least eight lives were lost in Chicago and vicinity, and fifteen persons were injured, while it will probably take hundreds of thousands of dollars to repair the damage done. The following is a corrected list of the killed:

Gustave Doering.
Emma Klima.
John Michon.
Charles J. Roberts.
Harvey Stewart.
Three unknown men.

Numerous Narrow Escapes.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

It Sets Fire to a Vessel—Twenty-seven Perish in the Disaster.

BORDEAUX, June 14.—An appalling accident occurred to-day just outside the harbor of Blaye, on the river Gironde, twenty-four miles northeast of this city. Lying off the harbor was the British steamer Petrolia, commanded by Captain Hubback, which had arrived June 12 from Philadelphia. A thunder storm was prevailing, and while at its height the vessel was struck by lightning. Instantly there was a flash and a tremendous roar, and the vessel was apparently blown to pieces. Huge fragments and the deck houses were carried upward to a great height.

The shock of the explosion alarmed the town, and hundreds of persons rushed to the wharves to discover the cause of the noise, it being thought by many that the magazine of one of the forts defending Blaye had blown up. The river was strewn with wreckage from the Petrolia, and burning oil was floating on the water. This drifted with the tide, and floating against several vessels lying at anchor, set them on fire. Two or three other vessels were ignited by burning oil which fell on their decks or rigging.

The Petrolia was soon burning furiously, and the heat was so intense that it was dangerous for small boats to approach near to her. Volumes of stifling black smoke hung over and around the burning steamer. Some of the more venturesome of the boatmen, hearing cries for help, rowed as closely as possible to the Petrolia, and succeeded in picking up sixteen of her crew, three of her engineers and the second officer. Some of the rescued men were severely burned. They were taken ashore as rapidly as possible and physicians summoned to attend them. The survivors said that there were twenty others on board the vessel when the explosion occurred, and another search was made in the vicinity of the burning ship in the hope of saving more lives, but not a body was found, and it is believed that every one of the twenty men perished. The crews of the vessels that caught fire did their utmost to quench the flames, but their efforts were fruitless, and the craft, mostly vessels engaged in the river and coasting trade, were burned to the water's edge.

REED TO MCKINLEY.

Ohio's "Big Four."

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—It can now be counted upon as almost certain that the delegates-at-large to the Chicago Democratic convention to be selected to-morrow will be Brice, Campbell, Lawrence Neal, and Robert Bleo. ### CHAUNCEY DEPEW

May Be Selected Secretary of State--Secretary Elkins' Visit.

NEW YORK, June 14.—An announcement that Secretary Elkins had arrived in this city with a message from President Harrison to Chauncey M. Depew, stating his desire for him to accept the portfolio of secretary of state has created considerable comment among Republicans in this city. Any means of ascertaining the truth of the matter was prevented by Mr. Depew leaving the city to spend the night at Ophir farm with Whitelaw Reid.

A WAYWARD WIFE

Causes a Double Tragedy--A Wealthy Ranchman's Discovery.

ARKANSAS CITY, KAN., June 14.—A wayward woman was the cause of a sensational double tragedy which occurred last night at the Gladstone Hotel in this city. As a result J. A. McCormick, who figured in the role of the avenging husband, and D. C. Jones, Mrs. McCormick's companion, are both dead.

McCormick, who was a wealthy man, found his wife and Jones in a room of the hotel last night and without a word he commenced shooting. He only wounded Jones the first shot, and then stopped and commenced to curse him. Jones reached for his revolver and then both opened fire. Jones was shot three times and McCormick twice. Both died almost instantly. Mrs. McCormick managed to escape to an adjoining room, where she was arrested. The shooting has caused a great deal of excitement.

The Navy Yard Disaster.

VALLEJO, CAL., June 14.—An inquest was held last night upon the bodies of the 14 men of the United States cruiser Boston, who were killed in the explosion in the magazine at the Mare Island Navy Yard yesterday. Nothing new was developed, as there was no one to give direct testimony, 14 of those who were at the scene of the explosion being dead, and the other one being in a dying condition. A verdict of accidental death was found for all.

The Old Coal Oil story.

PITTSBURGH, PA., June 14.—Mrs. Lerock, wife of a coal miner at Imperial, Pa., tried to hasten the breakfast this morning by pouring kerosene on the kitchen fire. An explosion followed and Mrs. Lerock and her two children, aged three and ten years, were burned so badly that the youngest child died in an hour and the mother and other child cannot recover.

The Chicago Fire.

PITTSBURGH, PA., June 14.—A despatch from Chicago, Pa., says the fire has burned itself out. It started in Mrs. McKinley's restaurant, on Slippery Rock street, and burned everything on the west side to and including the Butler county bank. Thirty buildings were destroyed. The loss is $50,000. Chicago has a population of about 1,500.

No Foundation for It.

BALTIMORE, MD., June 14.—Officials of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad say there is not a shadow of foundation in truth for the story which found publication yesterday under date of Connelleville, Pa., that an attempt was made last Sunday night to hold up the New York & Philadelphia express, between Layton station and Connelleville.

ed. In this city there was an increase in the death rate to-day due to the excessive heat. Yesterday there were 77 deaths, and to-day 160 were recorded.

ANOTHER ALLIANCE MAN

Dies Suddenly--He Served President Polk's Remains Home.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—Gen. Eli T. Stackhouse, member of Congress from the Sixth district of South Carolina, and a prominent member of the Farmers' Alliance, died in this city at 1:30 o'clock this morning. He was one of the party that accompanied the remains of the late Col. L. L. Polk to Raleigh, N. C., last Saturday. Mr. Stackhouse returned to Washington yesterday morning. He went over to the house of representatives, which is only one block from his residence, and at 2 o'clock went home to luncheon. He complained of a slight attack of indigestion, but seemed to be in good spirits. He remained at home for awhile, but returned to the house before the adjournment of that body yesterday.

When the house met to-day the death of Representative Stackhouse was announced, the customary resolutions were adopted, and the speaker appointed a committee to accompany the remains to South Carolina. The house, as a further mark of respect, then adjourned until to-morrow. Similar action was taken in the senate.

KANSAS FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

The Question Before the Convention Is, "Shall We Fight?"

WICHITA, KAN., June 14.—Delegates to the Farmers' Alliance state convention, which meets to-morrow to nominate a full state ticket are discussing only one question: "Shall the Farmers' Alliance face with the Democrats?" There is a strong fusion sentiment among the more conservative delegates and leaders, who realize that without Democratic aid they cannot hope for success, knowing that it was the Democratic votes two years ago that carried half their ticket to victory. It looks to-night as if the fusion idea would prevail.

The members of the Farmers' Alliance are adhering closely to their old rule, that the office must seek the man, and candidates are rather chary of proclaiming their candidacy. Jerry Simpson's renomination for Congress this afternoon will probably make his little gubernatorial boom. That boom was started by some of his more enthusiastic admirers and against Simpson's expressed desire.

FIVE PERSONS KILLED

And Fifteen Injured in a Railway Wreck in England.

LONDON, June 14.—Five persons were killed and eight injured by a collision that occurred early this morning at the Bishop's Gate station of the Great Eastern railway. Through some misunderstanding of signals or orders two workmen's trains ran into each other.

Hundreds of working girls were in the carriages, and they increased the excitement by their wild shrieking. Many of them went into hysterics and the physicians who were summoned had their hands full in attending to them. The live dead were taken to the morgue while ambulances carried the injured to the hospital.

In addition, the Scotch express on the Midland railway ran into an engine at the Leeds station to-day. Seven persons were quite severely injured.

Terrible Railway Accident.

PORT HURON, MICH., June 14.—All Grand Trunk trains were late to-day owing to a terrible accident at Olmstead, near Battle Creek. The boiler of the locomotive hauling a heavy loaded freight train blew up at that point this morning.

Engineer Wood, Fireman Smith and Brakeman Parker, all of Battle Creek, were seriously and it is feared fatally scalded. The track was torn up and fifteen cars hurled from the rails. The damage has not been officially estimated, but it will reach many thousands of dollars.

THE GOLDEN ROD CIRCLE'S

Graceful Tribute to Dr. Harriet B. Jones.

During the past season Dr. Harriet B. Jones's parlors have been the meeting place of the Golden Rod Chautauqua circle. Yesterday evening the last meeting of the circle for this season was held, with Dr. Harriet B. Jones, the president, in the chair.

The literary feature of the evening was the telling of fairy tales from the German. When all of the twenty members present had told their story, Mrs. Rebecca Harden's turn came, and she thus began:

DEAR DR. JONES:—The Chautauquans of the Golden Rod circle have asked me to extend to you their sincerest thanks for the invariable kindness shown them during the Chautauqua year. Your home has been a place of profit and pleasure and we have all felt it a good place to be. No matter how fast the snow fell, or how hard the rain poured, even when we walked, as it were, on glass, if we could only reach the desired haven, all thoughts of discomfort vanished at the cheery welcome that greeted us in this bright parlor. Above all we must thank you for the interesting manner in which our various studies have been planned for us, making a feast for the minds eager for such food. Even the amusements have been skillfully chosen, each bearing something that lingers in the memory as a savor of salt, or the odor of a flower, all tending to the true Chautauqua idea of culture—self culture.

The establishment of this home by a woman, a woman's effort, it is one of "God's pictures," and will leave its impression on the young minds which have enjoyed the sunshine of its influence.

Seeing that we have received so much that will ornament our lives, our thought has been to give a mite in return, that will keep to ornament the shining board of our sister, leader and friend. May this little gift ever remind you of the grateful appreciation of the Chautauqua class of 1891 to 1892.

The gift referred to was a beautiful ewer and vase of Austrian ware. Dr. Jones was surprised, but soon recovering, expressed her appreciation of the handsome gift in a few heartfelt words. The Golden Rod circle has thirty members and is one of the most flourishing in the city. The studies pursued by the members have been of value to them, and all are prepared to pursue next year's course with renewed vigor.

THE JEWISH SUNDAY SCHOOL

Examination--The Scholars Proficient and the Parents Well Pleased.

The examination of the pupils of the Jewish Sunday school was conducted yesterday evening by Dr. Bonheim, in the school room of the synagogue. The parents of the pupils were well represented, and there were present besides President Henry Baer, Vice President Henry Jacobs, Chairman of the Sunday school committee Victor Rosenberg and committeeman Emanuel Einsheimer. The proceedings were opened with prayer by the pupils and the examination commenced. In Hebrew reading the children showed remarkable proficiency, and also in the rigid examination in Bible history, from Genesis to Saul's reign. In the catechism examination even the smaller children missed no answers to the questions.

The more advanced pupils were examined in the Jewish religion, the feast and the calendar, and successfully stood the test of the most difficult questions. After the examination proper was concluded, several pupils delivered recitations with good elocutionary effect. The ladies then treated the school to refreshments, and this portion of the entertainment was as pleasing to the children as what had gone before.

The parents were delighted with the thorough manner in which their children had been instructed in the tenets of their ancient faith, and the proper credit was given to Rev. Dr. Bonheim, the superintendent, and his capable assistants.

Far from His Home.

LONDON, June 14.—An unusual ceremony took place at West Brompton to-day. It was the burial of Long Wolf, an Ogulain chief, who died Sunday at the Wild West encampment, from the effects of wounds received in various campaigns during his career as a warrior. His body contained twenty-five bullet wounds, all of which had become more or less painful with increasing age. When the hostages came in during the recent Indian outbreak in the United States, Long Wolf was the first Indian to give up his gun to General Miles. He did this to set a peaceable example to the hostile members of his band.

Cannot Account For It.

BAY CITY, MICH., June 14.—Mrs. George Beaudrick, of South Bay City, jumped into the river this morning with her two children. All were drowned. Mr. Beaudrick says he can not account for the awful action of his wife.

CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The "Star-Eyed Goddess of Reform" Reformed.

"COURIER-JOURNAL'S" REPORTER

Says that Cleveland Will Go Through on First Ballot

WITH NO ONE ELSE IN IT.

Carlisle Not Being Able to Get Any Higher He Is Suggested as Permanent Chairman, so that He Can Attempt to Answer McKinley's Minneapolis Speech--Ohio's "Big Four"--Other Gossip About the Wigwam Meeting.

Chicago, June 14.—Mr. C. O. Stealy, the Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier Journal, is in the city to attend the convention. In his dispatch to the Courier Journal to-night he states that the Cleveland cyclone here next week will sweep everything before it, and that Cleveland will be nominated by acclamation before the roll call is half finished. He also states that there will be no organized opposition to the nomination of Mr. Cleveland outside of New York. He concluded his dispatch as follows:

"Since we cannot have John G. Carlisle for president this year, let us make him permanent president of the great Democratic convention that has over met in this country. He is the man of all others to answer McKinley's Minneapolis speech, and he will make a tariff reform argument that will ring from one end of the country to the other. In addition to all of this, he is splendidly equipped for the position, being the ablest parliamentarian in the country, and a man always fair and impartial in his rulings."

THE DEMOCRATIC WIGWAM.

The Effects of the Storm on It--Will Have a Timber Roof.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Hundreds of people visited the Democratic national convention wigwam to-day to view the work of the storm. The broken centre pole and the huge strips of canvas scattered about were all that rewarded sightseers.

The building itself showed no evidence of strain. Thousands of feet of planking were delivered during the day and the labor of erecting a timber roof instead of the airy canopy originally proposed, was in full swing. Night and day shifts of men will be on hand constantly till the wigwam's construction is complete. No fear is expressed that the hall will not be ready on time.

THE BOIES BOOM.

The Iowa Man Is for First Place or None.

CHICAGO, June 14.—The advance guard of the Iowa delegation arrived at the Palmer House to-day, and carried with them a small Boies boom. "This Boies boom which we have brought with us," said Mr. Martin, one of the members, "will have decidedly healthy proportions when it strikes the convention. The delegates propose to secure his nomination and they will stick to him to the end. We shall have 10,000 of the best citizens of the state here and there will not be a man left behind in Iowa who will not pray that Boies may get the nomination. Governor Boies is not making this campaign. It is the state of Iowa. We wish it distinctly understood that we are not playing him for a second place on the ticket. Kansas has expressed a desire to support him for the vice presidency and the delegation from that state would probably cast a solid vote for him for that position. Their action in this regard is without any consultation with Governor Boies or his friends. When approached as to his candidacy his response is probably the most modest ever made by a possible President."

Cleveland's General Expected.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Col. John Tracy, who is at the Grand Pacific, expects Col. Robert G. Monroe, secretary of the New York Cleveland delegation, to reach the city to-morrow evening, and ex-Mayor Grace and ex-Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild on Thursday. The main body of the Cleveland men, 500 strong, will arrive on Saturday next.

Arkansas Democrats.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., June 14.—The Democratic state convention here to-day elected E. C. Bridwell, of Hempstead county, permanent chairman. In his speech to the convention he urged that an un instructed delegation be sent to Chicago.

After the selection of a full state ticket, with W. M. Fishback selected for governor, the convention took a recess until 8:30 p. m., at which time the delegates-at-large to Chicago convention will be elected.

Base Ball Yesterday.

The base ball games in the country yesterday resulted as follows: Baltimore, 18; Louisville 9. Philadelphia, 10; Pittsburg, 4. New York, 9; Cleveland, 6. Washington, 12; St. Louis, 7. Brooklyn, 9; Chicago, 6. Boston, 11; Cincinnati, 6.

Italy Will Take Part.

ROME, June 14.—The government has notified Mr. Porter, the American Minister, that Italy accepts the invitation to take part in the International monetary conference.

A Huge Transaction.

SHENANDOAH, PA., June 14.—The William Penn Coal Company's colliery has been acquired by the Pennsylvania railroad. It is a huge transaction.
